Website Description:

One of the hardest lessons for a coach to learn is who you can coach and who you can't. Any experienced coach will tell you that it's often about saying no to the client who just isn't a fit.

High impact coaches do a lot of the work to ensure their coaching is effective BEFORE the coaching relationship even begins. In this course, learn what it takes to give your client the best possible relationship for effectiveness. We'll discuss what effective intake processes do and how you can launch coaching relationships that work every time out.

Course Objectives:

The objectives for this course are:

- Understand the full coach development arc as CoachNet applies it
- Equip yourself with a basic skill set for informal & formal coaching
- Experience the ICF Core Competencies and Code of Ethics
- Conduct formal and informal coaching conversations and begin to understand formal coaching relationships

Required Student Resources:

To successfully complete 301 Developing The Ideal Intake Process you will need:

- A reliable internet connection
- A reliable telephone
- A copy of the 301 Developing The Ideal Intake Process Participant's Sessions Guide
- An email address
- Word processing software to submit final assignments in Microsoft Word format

Course Schedule/Outline/Calendar of Events:

301 Developing The Ideal Intake Process follows one of two formats: online for 4 - 60 minute sessions, online for two 2 hour sessions. Both formats include follow up assignments.

301 Developing The Ideal Intake Process begins online 3-5 times per year on average.

Course Outline:

Session	Class Focus	Follow Up Assignment
