Website Description:

Coaching is one of the must have leadership skills sets in today's complex and uncertain world. You can empower your staff—in your business, church or non-profit organization—you use coaching as the default leadership skill, but also as the orienting principle to people development, team building, leader empowerment and accountability to action. Coaching cultures change organizations, and coaching organizations change the world!

In this course, learn CoachNet's organizing principles and implementation process for launching a coaching culture across your church, business or non-profit.

This course covers the following ICF Core Competencies:

#8 Creating Awareness

#9 Designing Action

#10 Planning & Goal Setting

#11 Managing Progress & Accountability
