Website Description:

Most coach training focuses on the skills a coach needs to deliver a single, high-quality coaching conversation. You set the coaching agreement, explore the key issues, listen for a breakthrough, and design specific actions for follow up.

Every one of those terms means something different when you look at them in the context of an entire coaching relationship. And that's where 500 Arc comes in.

In this 20-hour training opportunity, you will explore the four sub-cores of an effective coaching relationship. You'll understand how the coach's inner monologue changes through the various phases of the coaching relationship as the client builds clarity and moves toward their goals.

500 Arc also includes two live triads for practice coaching and written feedback from your instructor. You will complete 500 Arc with some short writing assignments and a final recorded triad that is scored against the PCC Markers used in the International Coach Federation credentialing process.

Prerequisites: To take course at the 500 level or above, you should meet the following pre-requisites:

- Complete 60 or more hours of coach training
- This course is designed for the credentialed coach
- Have 60 or more hours of coaching experience
- Instructor: Dave Brunelle, ACC
- Training Language: English

500 Arc is 20 hours of coach specific training.

- 20 Hours, delivered fully online; 8 weeks of sessions, 2 hours in each online session
- Please check on www.coachnet.org for when this class is offered
- Emphasis on understanding the full scope of a coaching relationship
- Receive feedback on recorded coaching conversations from experienced coaches to learn what to do (and sometimes what NOT to do)
- Practice coaching triads in live sessions 4 and 8 plus one final triad after session 8 that is recorded and reviewed by a CoachNet Trainer. You will also complete quizzes writing assignments in between sessions
- Optional final coaching conversation with a CoachNet trainer to receive personal and specific feedback on your coaching
- All 11 ICF Core Coaching Competencies are covered

Course Objectives:

The objectives for this course are:

- Understand a coaching relationship as a story/narrative.
- Understand and apply a structure for an effective coaching relationship.
- Develop skills to assess progress in the relational Arc.
- Learn to use accountability tools to stay on track.
- Design & use corrective tools to get back on track.

Required Student Resources:

To successfully complete 500 Arc you will need:

- A reliable internet connection
- A reliable telephone
- A copy of the 500 Arc Participant's Sessions Guide
- An email address
- Word processing software to submit final assignments in Microsoft Word format

Course Schedule/Outline/Calendar of Events:

Your 500 Arc will follow the following formats online training for eight 2 hour sessions.

- Sessions 1-3 & 5-7 are live interactive learning
- Sessions 4 & 8 are a live practice triad exercise where you'll coach and be coached. You'll also receive feedback from the instructor and your peers

500 Arc also includes follow up triad and writing work, which is due 30 days after the last class. 500 Arc begins online 3-4 times per year. The Final Triad is recorded and evaluated by the CoachNet Team according to standards from the International Coach Federation as if you were submitting it with a credential application. The PCC Makers are the ICF standard for this evaluation.
